Getting Comfortable with DEI: Where do I start?

*Tuesday, October 10th, 2023
2:00 pm-3:30 pm EST*

Getting comfortable discussing diversity, equity, and inclusion takes time and personal investment. What's the best way to get started? This interactive session will introduce participants to the ARC of Racial Justice, a model developed by author, Jemar Tisby. ARC stands for Awareness, Relationships and Commitment. During the session, participants will discuss ways to increase awareness and build new relationships while also developing their own personal plan and commitment to dismantling racism.

Steuben County Mobility Management

SAVE THE DATE

Steuben County Transportation Advisory Committee Meeting

Scott Bogren has been with the Community Transportation Association of America (CTAA) since 1989, serving the association in a wide variety of roles before being named Executive Director in 2016. He is a passionate transit advocate and (prior to COVID-19) a daily transit user. His work has always focused on building and promoting safe, affordable, accessible and inclusive mobility for all Americans. A proud graduate of Indiana University's journalism program, Scott lives in Germantown, Md., with his wife Beth.

Scott will be presenting and discussing the evolution and future of Mobility Management (rural focused) to the Steuben County Transportation Advisory Committee, and will accept questions from local mobility professionals at the end of his speech. This is open to the public.

Steuben County Mobility Manager, Eddie VanStine welcomes you to share with your networks and come and hear about the projected path and the future of mobility In the USA from a national standpoint.

How to: Update IHS 211 Helpline Food Resource Agency Listing

(archived from July's Provider Edition)

Increasing food costs, a reduction in federal SNAP benefits and personal circumstances are stretching food budgets for families and individuals across the Finger Lakes Region. 211 is here to provide information and referrals to those families and individuals in need.

Does your organization provide food related services/programs to the community? If so, please be sure to update your agency listing information with 211. It takes just a few minutes and a few steps to ensure that 211 has your agency's most current information.

"HOW TO" Instructions

Need help finding food resources for your family or for clients?

To speak to a Referral Specialist who can assist you with food resources, dial 2-1-1 or text your ZIP code to 898211. You can also find food programs near you listed on the IHS Website. Information provided is for residents of 11 counties in the Finger Lakes Region. Click below to be directed.

Present Paul Harris Award: August 3rd

Rotary Club of Corning New York

CORNING, NY—The Rotary Club of Corning honored one of its own as a Paul Harris Fellow on Thursday, August 3, 2023.

The Corning Rotary Club presents the Paul Harris award to outstanding Club and community members in recognition of activities that exemplify Rotary's motto of "Service Above Self." Members of the media are invited to cover the event, to be held at the DoubleTree by Hilton Corning Downtown (formerly Radisson) Hotel at noon.

Rotary
Corning NY
District 7120

About Rotary

The objective of Rotary is to encourage and foster the advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Rotary brings together a global network of volunteer leaders dedicated to tackling the world's most pressing humanitarian challenges. Rotary connects 1.2 million members of more than 34,000 Rotary clubs in over 200 countries and geographical areas. Their work improves lives at both the local and international levels, from helping families in need in their own communities to working toward a polio-free world. Visit rotary.org and endpolio.org for more about Rotary and its efforts to eradicate polio.
